We are looking for an enthusiastic and flexible person to join our learning support/pastoral team. The successful candidate will provide assistance for students with additional educational needs who require support in their classes across the curriculum as well as more general learning support where required. This role will definitely involve a very 'hands-on' approach to whole group teaching and consequently we are looking to employ somebody who thrives in a student-facing, forward-thinking environment.

Our Ofsted inspection of March 2017 has fully endorsed, across all categories, that we are a 'Good' school.
